

ALABAMA HUMANITIES ALLIANCE

A SUPER Teacher Workshop

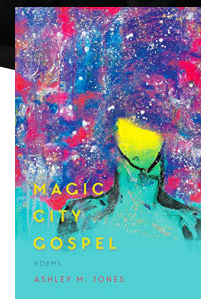

PRESENTED BY THE ALABAMA HUMANITIES ALLIANCE

All Y'all Really from Alabama

Examining the poetry of Ashley M. Jones, poet laureate of Alabama

July 28, 2022 | 9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Alabama Department of Archives and History
(Montgomery)

Learn new ways to support student literacy and deepen an appreciation for poetry in the classroom! Ideal for teachers of English, Creative Writing, History, Social Studies, and Civics.

Teacher benefits:

- ~ Continuing education credits (5)
- ~ $75 stipend + breakfast + lunch
- ~ Copies of Magic City Gospel and Reparations Now! by Ashley M. Jones
- ~ Teacher resources including The Language of Objects: A Creative Writing Handbook

Workshop highlights:

- ~ Review selected poems and prepare age-appropriate lesson plans
- ~ Access primary documents in the state archives that complement poems
- ~ Examine American history anew through the lens of Southern history and culture

Lead scholar: Zanice Bond, Ph.D., associate professor of English, Tuskegee University

Guest scholars: Caroline Gebhard, Ph.D. | Tuskegee University
Jeanie Thompson, MFA | Alabama Writers' Forum
Jacqueline Allen Trimble, Ph.D. | Alabama State University

Register now. Space is limited!

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SRTJ2RQ>

More info: 205.558.3992 ~ landerson@alabamahumanities.org