

Jenice Riley Memorial Scholarship

$1,000 awards for K-8 Alabama history teachers!

What is the Jenice Riley Memorial Scholarship?

The Alabama Humanities Alliance annually awards Jenice Riley Scholarships to support K-8 Alabama educators who excel at helping students engage with history and civics. Scholarships are awarded through a competitive application process.

Teachers can use their $1,000 award to support inspired history- and civics-related projects in the classroom or to expand their professional development.

Who can become a Riley Scholar?

- Current K-8 Alabama educators
- Past Riley Scholars may apply again
- Public and private school teachers eligible
- Teaching areas of focus: history, civics, and geography

Apply to be a Riley Scholar!

alabamahumanities.org/jenice-riley-memorial-scholarship

Questions?

205.558.3992 | landerson@alabamahumanities.org

The Riley Scholarships honor the late Jenice Riley — daughter of former Gov. Bob Riley and former First Lady Patsy Riley — an extraordinary teacher who instilled in her students a sense of creativity and a desire to learn.

Since 2003, the Alabama Humanities
Alliance has awarded:

97

Riley Scholars

$100,000

in teacher scholarships

Applications due:

9.2.22