

Teaching the History of Genocide: Historical and Contemporary Relevance

A SUPER Teacher Workshop

Presented by the Alabama Humanities Alliance

September 9, 2022 | 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Auburn University at Montgomery

About the workshop:

There are few topics tougher to teach than genocide. Join colleagues from around the state as we examine the historical and contemporary relevance of teaching about genocide.

Teacher benefits:

- Continuing education credits (5)
- $100 stipend + lunch
- Copies of Machete Season by Jean Hatzfeld and The Rape of Nanking by Iris Chang

Lead scholar:

Lee Farrow, Ph.D, chair of AUM's Department of History and World Languages and Culture

Questions?

205.558.3992 | landerson@alabamahumanities.org

Register now!

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/XNWY63C>