

Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth: Actionist for Justice

A SUPER Teacher Workshop

Presented by the

ALABAMA HUMANITIES ALLIANCE

October 15, 2022

9 a.m. - noon

Bethel Baptist Church
(Birmingham)

About the workshop:

Fred Shuttlesworth was the fulcrum of the civil rights movement in Birmingham — and a frequent KKK target for his freedom-fighting. Learn about the man behind the movement and his fiery, authentic, “actionist” style of leadership. Participants will also get a sneak peek of the new Alabama Public Television documentary, Shuttlesworth. This workshop is open to educators and the general public.

Teacher benefits:

- Continuing education credits (3)
- $50 stipend + refreshments
- Copies of A Fire You Can't Put Out by Andrew Manis and Where the Sacred and Secular Harmonize by David Holmes

Lead scholar:

David Holmes, Ph.D., dean of Liberal Arts & Sciences at Lipscomb University in Nashville

Questions?

205.558.3992 | landerson@alabamahumanities.org

“This is the story of probably the most unsung of the many heroes of the American civil rights movement. Put very bluntly, without Fred Shuttlesworth the 1963 Birmingham protests could not have happened, and without those demonstrations Congress would have ended racial segregation in public accommodations later than it did.”

– Andrew M. Manis, Shuttlesworth biographer

Register now!

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/FYLS389>