

ALABAMA
HUMANITIES ALLIANCE

The W. Edgar Welden
Fund for Education

Jenice Riley Memorial Scholarship

$2,000 awards for Alabama's K-8 history teachers!

What is the Jenice Riley Memorial Scholarship?

The Alabama Humanities Alliance annually awards teacher scholarships to support K-8 Alabama educators who excel at helping students engage with history and civics. Scholarships are awarded through a competitive application process.

Teachers can use their $2,000 award for history- and civics- related classroom projects or for professional development.

Who can become a Riley Scholar?

- Current K-8 Alabama educators
- Public and private school teachers
- Past Riley Scholars may apply again

2025 proposal theme:

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN HISTORY

All Riley Scholarship proposals must address how funds will be used to enhance teaching and learning about the rights and responsibilities of citizenship.

This is also the theme of AHA's
2025 Alabama History Day competition!

Learn more:

205.558.3992 | landerson@alabamahumanities.org
alabamahumanities.org/jenice-riley-memorial-scholarship

The Riley Scholarships honor the late Jenice Riley — an extraordinary teacher and the daughter of former Gov. Bob Riley and former First Lady Patsy Riley.

Since 2003, the
Alabama Humanities
Alliance has awarded:

106

Riley Scholars

$100,000+
in teacher scholarships

Apply by April 30, 2025!

